

Student Seminar: Construction of a News Story

Presented by Craig Oliver, CTV Chief Political Correspondent and Co-Host, Question Period

February 9, 2010
10:00 am to 12:00 pm

Regina Location:
JS Window Room, 2nd Floor, Gallery Building
University of Regina College Ave. Campus

University of Regina students are invited to take part in a student seminar with Craig Oliver. In particular, students from Journalism, Political Science and the Johnson-Shoyama Graduate School of Public Policy are encouraged to attend and participate in a multi-disciplinary discussion.

Craig Oliver brings his unique style of questioning and scrutiny back to the forefront every Sunday on Canada's landmark political program, Question Period. He goes toe-to-toe with Canada's top politicians, alongside his co-host, Jane Taber. Over the past four decades, Oliver's career has taken him across the country, as well as to more far-flung spots around the globe. He got his start in broadcast journalism at the CBC, specializing in news from the Prairies. In his work at CTV, beginning in 1972, Oliver has done it all - serving as the network's director of news and current affairs, producer of Canada AM's inaugural episodes, and as political correspondent in Washington.

Registration:

Students interested in attending are encouraged to register online at www.schoolofpublicpolicy.sk.ca (please select Current Students across the top).

For more information contact us at 306.585.5869 or js\_outreach@uregina.ca

Space is limited so please register early to avoid disappointment.

The JS Window Room is located on the second floor of the Gallery Building and is not wheelchair accessible. Individuals with mobility difficulties should let us know immediately.

