Note, as of November 1, Saskatchewan is on the same time as Manitoba (1 hour ahead of Mountain Time, 1 hour behind Eastern Time).

No U.S. election in recent memory has had greater implications for Canada, the world, and the US itself. The Nov. 3 vote unfolded in the midst of a global pandemic, a staggering economy and civil unrest. At stake was whether the US continues down a road of economic nationalism and withdrawal from international institutions, or returns to a role as an engaged global leader. Join our panel of experts as they explore the results and what it means for Canada.
