Join us for an engaging discussion as we analyze and discuss the outcomes of the 2024 Saskatchewan Provincial Election. Moderated by Dale Eisler, this event will feature a diverse panel of experts, including political analysts & community leaders, each offering unique perspectives on the implications of the election results. Attendees will gain insights into how the new political landscape will affect Saskatchewan residents, regional policies, and broader national issues. Explore the shifting dynamics in governance, economic strategies, and social programs as we navigate the future of Saskatchewan together!
