

CO-OP WEEK 2020: INTRODUCING THE CO-OPERATIVE INTELLIGENCE UNIT

The Canadian Centre for the Study of Co-operatives (CCSC) is proud to announce that we have partnered with the Co-operative Intelligence Unit (CIU), a group of co-operative practitioners, policy makers, and scholars, that aims to provide insight on the future of co-operatives.

As part of Co-op Week 2020, the CIU is hosting:

COVID-19 and Co-ops: Strategic Foresight Session
Wednesday, October 14, 2020
10 AM - 12 PM (MDT) via Zoom

This session explores the factors that will impact the co-operative sector over the next 18 months.

Breakout sessions include:

- Modern Monetary Theory and Economic Growth with CCSC director, Marc-André Pigeon, and Ian Glassford
- Platform Co-operatives with Stephanie Guico
- The Co-operative Advantage in Repairing Supply Chains caused by COVID-19 with CCSC Research Fellow, Bill Oemichen

Event Details: link
RSVP to the event: link

